Commission Percent©

Your seller sets the commission percent you will receive on each sale. You have absolutely no control over its amount.

Therefore, before you consider becoming an affiliate for anyone, use your AMP table to determine if all 7 Variables are either factual results of good research or realistic estimates based on standard rules of thumb or personal experience. Lucky guesses are rare and have no place in effective profit planning.

Remember, you can test and compare up to six separate scenarios. Learn to use them to continually improve your profit planning skill.
